

Congress of the United States

Washington, DC 20515

November 7, 2025

The Honorable Marco Rubio
Secretary of State
U.S. Department of State
2201 C Street NW
Washington, DC 20520

The Honorable Pam Bondi
Attorney General of the United States
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Secretary Rubio and Attorney General Bondi:

As a senior member of the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, I write to urge the Trump Administration to immediately pursue testimony from Andrew Mountbatten Windsor as part of ongoing investigations into Jeffrey Epstein's network of sexual abuse and trafficking. Survivors of Epstein's crimes—and the American public—deserve full transparency and accountability from all who may have had knowledge of or participation in this criminal enterprise.

Under the U.S.–U.K. Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty (MLAT), your respective departments have the authority to request the cooperation of the British government in criminal investigations to secure testimony from witnesses abroad. Per this treaty, “mutual assistance available under the Treaty includes: (1) the taking of testimony or statements of witnesses; (2) the provision of documents, records, and evidence; (3) the service of legal documents; (4) the location or identification of persons; (5) the execution of requests for searches and seizures; and (6) the provision of assistance in proceedings relating to the forfeiture of the proceeds of crime and the collection of fines imposed as a sentence in a criminal prosecution.” I therefore urge the Department of State and the Department of Justice to formally engage your British counterparts to obtain Mr. Mountbatten Windsor's testimony under this treaty framework.

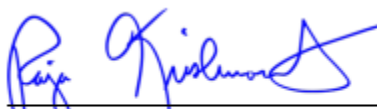

The most transparent and credible course of action would be for Mr. Mountbatten Windsor to appear voluntarily and provide full, sworn testimony regarding his relationship with Jeffrey Epstein and any knowledge he may possess about others involved. Should he enter U.S. jurisdiction, however, the Administration must be prepared to compel his cooperation through lawful subpoena authority or other appropriate mechanisms, including consideration of visa restrictions, consistent with existing law and the Oversight Committee's jurisdiction.

Recent delays in the release of the so-called Epstein Files have only deepened public concern that the Administration may be shielding powerful individuals from scrutiny. The pursuit of Mr. Mountbatten Windsor's testimony represents an essential test of whether this Administration will uphold the principle that no person—no matter how wealthy, well-connected, or titled—is above the law.

I urge you to take all steps necessary to ensure that Mr. Mountbatten Windsor's testimony is obtained in full and that all relevant records are made available to Congress and to the public. Survivors of these horrific crimes, and the American people, deserve nothing less.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter. I look forward to your prompt response outlining the steps your agencies are taking to pursue this request.

Sincerely,

Raja Krishnamoorthi
Member of Congress